

2006 Health Informatics Awards

AWARD RECIPIENTS

Gala

CHITTA CORPORATE CITIZENSHIP AWARDS

HEALTH DIVISION OF ITAC DIVISION DE LA SANTÉ DE L'ACTI

CHITTA has established the Corporate Citizenship Award to recognize leading for-profit healthcare ICT companies that are committed to, and passionate about, health informatics - and who have demonstrated a significant investment in contributing to the industry in Canada. To qualify for consideration of this prestigious award, the private sector company must actively participate in promoting and developing Canada's Healthcare ICT industry, and be recognized by clients and peers for having a long-term commitment to the industry. The company supports and presents at industry conferences and events, supports educational initiatives and academic organizations, participates in standards and other infrastructure activities and maintains an involvement with industry associations, volunteer boards, and publications.

Recognition for this award falls into 3 categories:

1. Multi-National Company;
2. Major Canadian Company with sales in excess of 10 million; and,
3. Small to Medium Enterprises with sales under 10 million.

These awards are proudly sponsored by:

Multinational Corporations

Cerner Canada, Aurora, ON

Jim Shave, President Accepting

Cerner Canada has been active as an involved participant in, and has continuously supported the healthcare ICT industry by participating as a member of and sponsoring many Canadian Healthcare ICT industry events and programs such as COACH, CHITTA, the Canadian Patient Safety Institute, the Ontario Hospital Association and London Health Sciences Foundation - to name a few.

Major Canadian Company

Sierra Systems, Victoria, B.C.

Bill Thomson, Executive Vice President Accepting

This year's winner has contributed major staff time and membership funding to the full health informatics community in Canada.

With several senior partners in leadership positions over the last 5 years in COACH, ANHIX, CHITTA, the CIHI Partnership, National CIHI and the Infoway Standards committee and International Standards committee - the total time commitment over the years is incalculable but hugely significant.

Small to Medium Enterprises

Procura, Victoria, B.C.

Warren Brown, President Accepting

Procura has also exhibited membership, participation and sponsorship in a number of industry associations and related events including: the CHCA Annual Conference, COACH's annual eHealth Conference and the Software Human Resource Council (SHRC).